JAP TROOPS ARE DANGEROUSLY CLOSE TO SINGAPORE

Heavy Artillery Battle Raging In Philippine Islands

Dutch Fighters Hit Invasion Footholds With Aid of Allies

By the Associated Press
Japan's all-out gamble for a quick, sweeping victory before the United States can take the offensive carried her troops dangerously closer to Singapore today, touched off a preparatory artillery battle along the entire Philippine front and stirred up a hornet's nest of resistance in the Netherlands East Indies.

Dutch fighters by land and air struck at invasion footholds gained by the Japanese over the week-end and claimed that, with allied aid, they had shot down two Japanese cruisers, a destroyer and two transports with bombs.

The outcome of the land, sea and air battles for vital outposts in the Dutch archipelago was still in the balance; the fighting was mounting in bloody, destructive fury.

For assistance, the Dutch had United States warships and American and Australian planes.

"Our allies are energetically taking part in the fight against the invaders," said a communiqué.

"Allied planes yesterday shot down four Japanese planes over Manila while they further scored two direct hits on a Japanese cruiser and a near miss on a destroyer.

"This morning two Australian planes near Manado were shot down in flames by the Japanese.

"Our bombers this morning scored a direct hit on a Japanese cruiser lying off Tarakan while our Glider Martin bombers also scored two direct hits on two Japanese transport ships lying there."

The Dutch surprisingly found it possible also to help in the defense of Singapore. N. E. I. fighters were said to have shot down three Japanese raiders attacking the British base this morning.

Japan would need thousands of additional troops to close in on Singapore or to extend her invasion footholds in the N. E. I.

The most that Japan could claim after the first shock of her attack on the N. E. I. was possession of the small city of Manado, on northern Celebes, a narrow arm of the Dutch archipelago, south of the Philippines, and the island of Tarakan, off the coast of Dutch Borneo, to the northwest of Celebes.

Both points were naturally difficult to defend.

In Malaya, the Japanese, despite the succession of British imperial withdrawals, were still more than 150 miles from Singapore and probably no closer on the eastern side, although there has been little exact word on the locations of that front.

Nevertheless the Japanese had negotiated an important barrier on their way toward Singapore with the capture of Kuala Lumpur.

Leon Henderson, the price administrator, announced the retreat price schedule yesterday in a statement saying the price business in the used and retread tire business had become so flagrant it "cannot and will not be allowed to continue."

The schedule goes into effect next Monday and Henderson said it would be followed shortly by an order limiting the resale price of used tires.

Persons retreading or top capping the 6.00 x 16 tires commonly used on low priced passenger cars may charge no more than 7.50 if best grade camblock is used, or $6.45 if they work with second grade camblock. Retreaders apply new rubber on tire tread surfaces and side walls, recappers to only the tread surface. Both use a material called camblock.

If dealers sell retreaded tires they may charge the maximum retreading fee for the type involved, plus $1.50 for the tire carcass.

GAS FUMES KILL FIVE IN FAMILY

By the Associated Press
Five persons—one family—died from fumes of a small gas stove at Greensburg, accounting for nearly half of Pennsylvania's weekend accidental death toll.

Frances Walsh, 41-year-old odd job man, his wife Martha, 36, and their children, William, 13, Mary, 11, and Patty, 21 months, were found dead in a bedroom of their home. A pet dog, outside the room, was unharmed. Coroner H. G. McMurray said the stove's fumes caused their death.

Fred Wagner, 15, Lewistown High School basketball star, was burned to death when five destroyers were destroyed.

Chungking, Jan. 12.—(P)—Christopher Sharman of a Quaker ambulance unit, who has just made a round trip on the Burma road, declared today it was "chock-full of Chinese troops moving westward toward the border with tanks, motorized artillery, Bren guns and light weapons."

Berlin, Jan. 12.—(Official broadcast recorded by P)—German newspapers reported today that 56,325,930 pieces of winter clothing for Nazi soldiers on the Russian front have been donated by the German people in response to Adolf Hitler's appeal—enough to fill 3,056 railway cars now on their way to the front.

Agriculture Secretary Declares War Placing New Demands For Food

Wickard Cautions Americans Against Being Excessively Concerned About Prices, Too Complacent On Supplies

ASKS PRICE CONTROL

By OVID A. MARTIN
Washington, Jan. 12.—(P)—Declaring the war is placing new, unexpected and as yet unmeasurable demands upon this country for food, Secretary of Agriculture Wickard today cautioned Americans against being excessively concerned about prices and too complacent about supplies.

He voiced this warning in an interview explaining why he had asked congress to vest in him, rather than in a separate price administrator, the power to set ceilings on farm products. "The senate in effect gave him that power in a price control bill passed Saturday, despite a request of President Roosevelt that all price control be vested in a single administrator. Congressional action on the legislation has not been completed, however."

Emphasizing that he did not wish to alarm consumers, Wickard said they should nevertheless recognize now that events since Pearl Harbor had greatly altered the food situation. Before Japan struck, demands were limited mostly to the country and Great Britain. Supplies and production prospects appeared ample then.

"But today no one can tell," the secretary said, "what the demands upon us may be before the war is won. We may be called upon to furnish vast supplies to allied

London Hears Sharp Disagreement Has Arisen Between Grand Admiral Raeder and Submarine Chief Karl Doenitz

MISLEADING CHARGED

London, Jan. 12.—(P)—Growing dissension in the Nazi high command was reliably reported to have spread to the navy today with a sharp disagreement between Grand Admiral Erich Raeder and his submarine chief, Vice Admiral Karl Doenitz.

Earlier the London Star quoted a Moscow broadcast that Field Marshal General Wilhelm Keitel, chief of the Nazi high command, suddenly had been taken ill.

A foreign source, whose information about Germany has almost invariably proved accurate, said Doenitz had accused his superior of misleading him about successes of submarine raiders and the availability of replacements. He flatly charged Raeder with "being responsible for the miscarriage of submarine warfare."

This source said the Doenitz phrase, which he described as a direct quotation, "bears out indications that things are not going so well for the Germans in the battle of the Atlantic."

Doenitz, this source said, is an admirer and friend of Field Marshal General Walter von Brauchitsch, whose retirement from his command in Russia has been reported to have resulted from his insistence that Hitler break off the campaign before winter set in and retire to lines behind Khoini, Smolensk and Kharkov.

PRODUCTION OF COAL HITS NEW HIGH MARK

Washington, Jan. 12.—(P)—Pennsylvania's bituminous coal production totaled 502,860,000 tons in 1941, highest since 1929, and the state's anthracite mines produced 54,351,000 tons, highest since 1936, Secretary of Interior Ickes announced.

The 1929 record output of bituminous was 534,889,000 tons compared with 453,000,000 in 1940. In 1936, anthracite mines gave up 54,580,000 tons, compared with 51,485,000 last year.

MOVE CEMETERIES TO MAKE WAY FOR DAM

Pittsburgh, Jan. 12.—(P)—The U. S. Army Engineers announced bids for the removal of 3,000 graves in four cemeteries at Smicksburg, Indiana county, will be opened Feb. 2 at the engineers' offices here.

The bodies, include those of several Revolutionary and Civil War soldiers, will be re-interred in a new burial plot in West Mahoning township to clear the way for the Mahoning flood control dam.

OVERHAULING OF EXCESS PROFITS TAXES IS ASKED

Washington, Jan. 12.—(P)—Thorough overhauling of the excess profits tax system and the enactment of drastic levies which would skim off the major share of corporation earnings from war production operations were proposed today by Senator Connally (D-Tex.), a member of the senate finance committee.

Amid signs that congress was growing impatient at the reputed failure of the treasury to explore new fields of taxation, Connally said he was certain there would be strong support for upward revision of levies which now range from 35 to 60 per cent on profits classed as "excess."

PUBLIC HEARING IS PROPOSED IN STRIKE

Johnstown, Jan. 12.—(P)—Public hearings by an arbitration board were proposed today as a means of settling the month-old strike of 1,100 employees of the Sonman mine of the Koppers Coal Co.

The men walked out December 11, protesting that the company had changed the reporting hour for the night shift from 4:30 p. m. to 7 p. m. "as a reprisal" for an earlier strike.

The War Fund Committee of the Warren County Chapter of the Red Cross has been asked to complete its quota by January 15th. We still have to raise $5850.00 to reach our $20,000 goal. Please send in your contribution at once. By so doing you will save your local chapter the cost of a second appeal. . . . conservatively such an appeal would cost $800.00. RUSSIANS CARRY ON OFFENSIVE

Red Armies Breach New German Winter Defense Line on Central Front; Report Renewed American-British Diplomatic Effort To Obtain War Bases In Neutral Eire

By the Associated Press
Reports of a renewed American-British diplomatic effort to win war bases in neutral Eire shared importance with advice that Russian armies had breached a new German winter defense line on the central front, putting themselves in good position to close their pincers on perhaps 150,000 Germans in the Muzhaisk sector.

The envisioned effects of air and sea bases in Eire were far reaching, but most immediate of all was their potential effect on Germany's already dwindling battle of the Atlantic sealanes.

That Germany still holds a great striking power in the Atlantic despite the curtailing effects of United States naval participation in patrolling and convoy protection was emphasized by a German communiqué announcing that another British destroyer had been sunk in the Atlantic by submarine action.

The Hitler command said that still another was torpedoed in the Mediterranean, presumably only damaged.

New overtures to Eire, combined with a British press campaign, have been mainly informal but nonetheless official thus far, it was reliably reported in London. The chances of success have improved since the United States entered the war.

Eire's prime minister, Eamon de Valera, has said that Irish sympathies lie with the United States, but he has insisted that involvement of Eire would promote disunity among a people which he leaves it must keep its distance from Britain.

The Russian recapture of Lyudynovo lightened the vise on the Germans at Muzhaisk, 57 miles west of Moscow and the closest position to the capital still held by the Nazis. Salients have been driven westward both below and above Muzhaisk.

The Red armies reported forward smashes there and elsewhere along the vast front from the Arctic to the Black Sea.

Meanwhile, the British admiralty announced its submarines had sent to the bottom of the Ionian Sea a (Turn To Page Five)

GERMANS FIGHT OUTBREAKS OF TYPHUS FEVER

Rush Hundreds of Doctors and Nurses to Eastern Front in "Battle Against Lice"; Find Asiatic Cholera

Berlin, Jan. 12.—(P)—Germany, combatting an outbreak of typhus fever, recently has rushed hundreds of additional doctors and nurses to the eastern front and established an anti-epidemic center at Warsaw, the Berlin correspondent of the Swiss newspaper National Zeitung reported today.

A "battle against lice," the chief carrier of typhus, has resulted. Nazi soldiers, wearing heavy clothing for long periods without washing them, the newspaper said, have been beset with lice.

"The abnormal climate and weather conditions of the Russian winter not only necessitate care of clothing, food and shelter for the troops but increasing painstaking examination of health conditions," the dispatch said.

"Special measures have been taken against epidemics for which the danger is very great. . . . In barracks and blockhouses there frequently are three to four times as many people crammed together as was the case on the western front."

LOUIS PASSES EXAM FOR ARMY INDUCTION

New York, Jan. 12.—(P)—Joe Louis passed his final physical examination today for induction into the army, and will take the last step Wednesday at Camp Upton, Long Island, which will change him to private Joe Louis Barrow.

The heavyweight champion went through an hour and a half physical test at Fort Jay, Governor's Island, along with some 400 other selectees.

MAY USE NAMES

Harrisburg, Jan. 12.—(P)—State Selective Service headquarters today notified by Brigadier General Lewis B. Hershey, director of Selective Service, that names of registrants about to be inducted into the military service may be furnished to newspapers for publication.

WORLD LEADER OF JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES DIES

San Diego, Calif., Jan. 12.—(P)—Lying on his deathbed, Joseph Franklin Rutherford, 72, world leader of Jehovah's Witnesses, voiced a last wish.

He asked disciples to bury him at dawn of the day after death in a hillside crypt at Beth-Sarim, the estate he built here for the Biblical King David's return to earth.

Rutherford died at the estate last Thursday in a passing kept secret until Saturday.

But today Rutherford's body was still unburied, his last wish thwarted by a county law forbidding burial on the estate because it is not a legally zoned cemetery.

Followers of the Jehovah's Witnesses movement obtained a hearing date Jan. 24 to present their burial permit petition before the county health commission. Preparations went ahead, meantime, on an apparently elaborate memorial to be erected at the estate.

Rutherford, who once termed "organized Christianity" an "unholy alliance against the common people" had been ill here for two months. Dr. George Roy Stevenson, who signed the death certificate, said Rutherford had known for 18 months of the malignant condition that eventually brought his death.

Corregidor Island And Front Defenses Under New Attacks

Washington, Jan. 12.—(P)—A heavy artillery battle along the entire front in the Philippines was reported today by the War Department, with ground activity increasing as fresh Japanese troops moved up, accompanied by renewed air attacks on American and Philippine defenses.

Corregidor, the island fortress guarding the entrance of Manila bay, as well as front line defenses of General Douglas MacArthur's troops, were subjected to new assaults from the air, the department said, as fresh enemy troops increased the pressure on the defending forces.

The text of the morning communiqué, number 55, based on reports received here up to 9:30 a. m., EST.

"Philippine theater."

"A heavy artillery battle is in progress along the entire front. Ground activity is increasing as fresh Japanese troops move into front line position. Enemy air attacks are being renewed on defensive installations and fortifications."

"General MacArthur reports that Japanese troops occupying Manila are attempting to suppress the use of radio receiving sets by civilians. This apparently is designed to prevent the reception of broadcasts from the United States and England, even though the action also prevents reception of propaganda broadcasts from Tokyo."

"2. There is nothing to report from other areas."

Flying Yanks and flog Dutchmen teamed up today to hunt more Japanese ships for their hit parade.

The targets they sought represented the vulnerable spot in Nippon's grandiose campaign of conquest. The huge quantities of troops and supplies which Tokyo needs in the South Pacific must be water-borne, and resource-poor Japan is not in a position to replace shipping losses indefinitely.

The U. S. Army and Netherlands bombers got in some heavy blows yesterday as the forces of the Son of Heaven battled to establish a major new invasion front in the fabulously rich East Indies.

The Yanks paid a return visit to the waters off Davao, the southern port in the Philippines which the Japanese have been utilizing as a naval base for their East Indies thrust. The heavy bombers scored a smashing direct hit on an enemy battleship and left it in flames. An anti-aircraft installation ashore also was hit.

Communing back to secret bases either in the Indies or Australia, the bombers spotted and swooped down on an enemy cruiser and two large transports in the Celebes sea, south of Davao. These were attacked, but the results were undetermined, presumably due to the poor visibility.

Units of the U. S. Asiatic fleet are cooperating with Dutch naval forces in invasion counter-moves, but the Navy Department here was silent on the nature and results of their activities.

The communiqué last night limited itself to a report of a Japanese hit-run attack on the naval station at Tutuila, in America (Turn To Page Nine)

CHINESE CLAIM JAP FORCES IN COMPLETE ROUT

Chungking, China, Jan. 2.—(P)—Chinese news dispatches declared today that Japanese forces retreating northward from Changsha after suffering a stunning defeat had been completely routed while trying to escape a Chinese encirclement and had left more than 8,000 dead on the field of battle.

The Chinese captured approximately 1,000 prisoners and large quantities of equipment during the battle, which took place between the Lantao and Milo rivers about 30 miles north of Changsha, Hunan province capital, the dispatches said.

(The Chinese dispatches failed to say what became of the main Japanese forces, but the figures of killed and captured would indicate that several thousand Japanese continued the retreat northward.)

The battle, which was said to have started last Friday and raged for a day and a night, boosted reported Japanese casualties in the ill-fated Changsha offensive to 45,000.

This would mean the greatest defeat the Japanese have suffered since the beginning of the war in China—a defeat not even exceeded by heavy setbacks in their two previous attempts to capture Changsha.

FIX COURSE ON "WAR GARDENS"

State College, Jan. 12.—(P)—Expecting the "war gardens" of 1917-18 to reappear, authorities at the Pennsylvania State College plan a special two weeks course in how to grow your own vegetables. The course will be offered Feb. 4 to 18 primarily to train people active in civilian defense organizations. If there's enough interest it will be repeated, the college said.

Interest apparently is increasing in vegetable growing for home use as a war measure, the college authorities said, but seed is scarce and may be wasted unless growers understand the cultivation of vegetable crops.

Erie Man Cited for Heroism While Serving Aboard Torpedoed Kearny

Washington, Jan. 12.—(P)—and exceptional courage when wounded was a splendid display of naval discipline which had its effect on the crew."

Commander Danis reported that Kurtz' life was saved by Henry J. Leinenknecht, chief yeoman of Whippany, N. J., as follows:

"Leinenknecht, at the risk of his own life, went out on the starboard wing of the bridge, which had been almost completely shrouded away and rescued a wounded man (Kurtz), who had been temporarily blinded, with both legs broken by the torpedo explosion, and who was crawling outboard and who was rescued by Leinenknecht."

For his courage, Kurtz received a letter of commendation from Admiral Ingersoll, commander of the Atlantic fleet, and was advanced in rating to a torpedo man second class.

ALIENS WARNED THEY MUST GIVE UP CONTRABAND

Aliens of the borough were warned today by Police Chief Hahn that failure to turn over their short wave radios, transmitters, firearms and cameras will bring prosecutions to those found possessing such articles.

It is pointed out that the order is compulsory and aliens are urged to turn these articles over to the police department as soon as possible to avoid arrest.

Regulation receipts have been received from the government and the articles taken from the aliens will be tagged and stored for the duration of the war. The order applies to all radios equipped with short wave receivers it is stated.

No alien from Germany, Italy, Japan and other nations unfriendly with the United States may have any of these articles in their possession and in order to avoid trouble they should turn them over to the police department as quickly as possible, the chief said. The order does not apply to aliens of countries allied with the United States.

FIRE AT TITUSVILLE

Fire which apparently started from an open flame that workmen were using to thaw out a frozen water pipe caused some damage to the Titusville Forge Works, about 11:20 Sunday night. The building was filled with tools and machine parts.

Important Changes In Selective Service Regulations Are Revealed

ANNUAL SCOUT DINNER BEING HELD TONIGHT

Scout officials today announced everything in readiness for the 21st annual meeting of the local Boy Scout council tonight at 6:45 o'clock at the North Warren Community House. The meeting will be opened by flag ceremony conducted by Scouts of Troop 9 under the leadership of C. Ray Lewis, Scoutmaster, to be followed by the invocation by Rev. M. E. Dailey.

Features of the meeting will be the presentation of two Eagle Scout badges, three Scoutmaster's keys, one Scoutmaster's training award and the Silver Beaver for distinguished service to boyhood.

The principal address will be made by Charles F. Smith, assistant national director of training who comes from New York City.

WARREN COUNTY VICTORY BOOK DRIVE STARTS

Today marks the opening of the "Victory Book Campaign," nationwide drive to collect gifts of books for soldiers, sailors and marines, which is sponsored cooperatively by the USO, American Red Cross and American Library Association.

On Saturday, Leon I. Jones, local librarian, was appointed director of the "Victory Book Campaign" for Warren county by State Director Horace G. Byrnes.

A campaign committee was immediately appointed to organize for effective action in the collection, sorting and distribution of books: Mr. Jones, director; Dr. Leonard Rosenzweig, H. L. Banghart, Mrs. C. W. Beckley, Rev. E. P. Wirth, Mrs. Guy McCloskey, H. L. Blair, John G. Rossman, Calvin Hall and Mrs. Howard Huff.

In order to carry on the campaign effectively, deposit stations are essential and, at present, books will be received at the public schools, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., and the public library. Plans will be made to secure more collection points.

The query, what books are wanted, is perhaps best answered by one of the campaign slogans: Give away the book you want yourself. It is that book which you have enjoyed heartily and kept as a friend on your shelf that a soldier or sailor will want to read.

The campaign opens officially January 12 and it is hoped that Warren county will have reached its quota of 2,200 books by January 31. Announcement of further plans will appear in the columns later.

New and important changes in selective service regulations governing deferments for dependency and defense workers have been received by Warren county's two local boards. These regulations, according to local board officials, will govern their action in classifying registrants in the military age groups.

Board members further stated that men, aged 28 and over, who had been released from active service in the army following the lowering of the age limit signed clauses placing them on the reserve list for 10 years. These men are now being recalled by the army for active duty. It was pointed out that such recalls are made directly by the army and the local boards have no jurisdiction in the matter.

Most important of the changes in regulations is the one governing dependency. It states that no registrant shall be deferred for dependency "if he acquired such status on or after September 16, 1940" (the date President Roosevelt signed the draft act) and December 8, 1941 (the date of the declaration of the war against Japan) unless he is able to present information which convinces the local boards that such status was not voluntarily acquired at a time when his selection was imminent or for the primary purpose of providing him with a basis for Class 3-A deferment.

The regulations also state that if he acquired dependency after December 8, 1941, he shall not be deferred unless he can prove that such status was acquired under circumstances beyond his control. According to the new regulations, it was stated, men who were married after that date need not apply for deferment. Men who acquired dependency through no fault of their own, such as the death of a father, will be considered for deferment, however.

In addition to the regulations says that "notwithstanding the provisions of the Class 3-A deferments, when, as and if allotments and allowances are provided for dependents of registrants who may be inducted, the director of selective service shall prescribe the effect to be given under these regulations."

The marked changes in the regulations, it is believed, indicate a tight restriction of the dependency claims and will open the way to reclassification into the general duty group of many men now holding 3-A cards.

Reference to "allotments and allowances" indicates that in some instances men now qualified as Class 3-A may be drafted and their dependency claims dissolved by the allotment they can make and allowances the government probably will make toward the support of dependents.

In the classification of defense workers, the new regulations bar the indefinite terms and prescribe such terms of deferment as "six months or less." This provision also applies to men in Class 2-A as well as Class 2-B defense workers.

The performance of such deferments, allowed in the peace-time regulations, has disappeared entirely and instead, at the end of six months deferment, the employer of defense and non-defense workers must certify and convince the local boards that he has made an honest but unsuccessful attempt to recruit another man to take the place of the registrant being considered.

Under such circumstances, the board may continue the deferment for "six months or less," and at the end of that time the case will be considered as it was at the end of the first deferment.

The gist of the regulations in this respect, it is believed, is to gradually work into the armed forces many of the men now holding down defense jobs, who are physically able to fight, while their jobs will be taken by men with minor defects, or those with well-founded dependency claims, or perhaps women.

ELKS' CHILDREN IN WAR ZONES GET ATTENTION

Exalted Ruler H. J. Christensen of Warren Lodge of Elks announced today that has received notice from James R. Nicholson, chairman of the Elks War Commission, New York City, that preparations have been made to take care of Elks' children evacuated from danger zones at the Elks National Home at Bedford, Va., should such a step become necessary.

Mr. Christensen stated that the following cable had been sent to Canal Zone lodges by Judge James T. Hallinan, of New York, who is a member of the Elks War Commission: "Elks National Home at Bedford, Va., will be prepared to take care of the children of Elks from Hawaii, Manila, Guam, Alaska, Puerto Rico and Canal Zone for duration of war. Please advise your membership at once and cable the Elks War Commission." Other cables were sent to Hawaii, Manila, Alaska and Puerto Rico.

At a meeting of the leaders of the Order of Elks held in New York City last week, plans were set to raise a fund to be operated by the Elks War Commission which originally was appointed in Houston, Tex., in 1940, and known as the Elks National Defense Commission. The fund of the various projects of this commission will be financed through voluntary contributions of the 500,000 members belonging to the 1400 lodges of the order.

"In the last war," said Mr. Christensen, "more than two million dollars was raised by the order for its war activities from its own membership and it is anticipated that an equal or larger sum will be raised by the Elks during the present war because of the order's increased strength in membership. Warren Lodge will do its part in this national program."

The Elks National Home, located at Bedford, Va., is a beautiful modern institution with a large farm, a herd of prize cattle and every other necessary adjunct to make it a welcome haven for children from

Yarn Shipments At Bundles For Britain Rooms For Knitters

Shipments of yarn are arriving at Bundles for Britain headquarters, 432 Pennsylvania avenue, west, and knitters are urged to complete their garments as quickly as possible so that this new supply may be put to use.

The local chapter is very proud of the amount of work which its knitters have turned out. Since the present headquarters were opened in November, 529 garments have been sent to New York for distribution. Boxes which were shipped last Saturday brings the total of articles completed and sent to 3,357.

Almost everyone who comes in for yarn is also knitting for the Red Cross and has begun to make garments for the U. S. Navy through Bundles for Bluejackets. So these figures from one organization give an indication of the magnificent response Warren county women are making to the call for "something knitted to keep out the cold."

GOOD USE BEING MADE OF FUNDS OF RED CROSS

As Warren county residents swing into the home stretch in the race to help the Red Cross beat the necessity of emergency, word comes from national headquarters that indicates good use is being made of the donations already emptied into the War Relief Fund chest.

That monthly expenditures of the Red Cross for war relief measures and services to the armed forces had increased from $400,000 to more than a million dollars, and that a material expansion will be necessary in the immediate future were the highlights of the report made by Chairman Norman H. Davis.

This tremendous increase in service to the army, navy and marines well demonstrates why Warren county's $20,000 quota and the quotas given to other chapters throughout America must not only be reached eventually—but reached soon.

No more appeal is needed than to explain the need of promptness—the local and national chapters are sure Americans will respond generously and quickly.

George E. Cowden, Warren county chairman, today issued another request that all those who have not yet done so mail or deliver their donations within the next few days, so that the county's quota may be turned over in its entirety for use in the war emergency. Contributions may be mailed to headquarters here or taken to the depositories in Warren and the county's other communities.

Mr. Cowden elaborated on the national chairman's report by pointing out that the 1940 budget for the armed forces was $660,000 while this year the appropriations for these services, not including war relief expenditures, are already $7,050,000 and further expansion is certain.

To see that the funds are available is one of America's big jobs and one to be shouldered by every citizen to the limit of his means.

EXPECT THE UNEXPECTED

It is fun to predict the future, especially if anybody takes your prediction seriously enough to read it.

But it is unsafe, and a good many experts have already found this out to their embarrassment.

Therefore, this will be an editorial without a single prediction. We don't know what is going to happen in the next six weeks or six months, or six years. And neither does anybody else.

If prediction of the results of a war were possible with any accuracy, it would really be unnecessary to fight the war. The factors making for victory would be so clearly and clearly stacked on one side that there would be no point in fighting at all. It is the fact that the result is uncertain that makes it necessary to fight it out to see who was right.

Americans tend to go on the easy assumption that the United States cannot possibly lose the war. That is quite a different thing from a firm faith and belief that we can win if we fight hard enough, that we must win if it takes our last cent, our last drop of blood.

The bland assumption that we are so big, so powerful, that we can't possibly lose, no matter what we do or do not do, is a fearful state of mind for people to get into. Obviously the Japanese think they can win; otherwise they would not have launched the war. The talk that it was all a desperate attempt to plunge the Japanese people into some strange form of Oriental suicide is all nonsense. The Japanese military lords have laid their plans craftily, and, weighing their force against ours, they think they can win. Up to now, they have scarcely lost a trick; their raid on Hawaii, their campaigns in the Philippines and in Malaya, have been carried on with military efficiency, no matter what one thinks of their morality. They suggest that the Japanese belief in victory is not based entirely in opium smoke.

This is not talking defeatism. This is merely saying that future events are unknown; that in the nature of war things happen which no one expected; that there is nothing about the latent power or situation of any land, our own included, that guarantees victory without the stern, efficient, determined fighting that alone brings victory.

We must have faith in ultimate victory that will carry us through whatever disappointments and setbacks await us (and they await all nations who engage in a major war). And we must have the courage to back up that faith in action, steadily, unrelentingly, until victory is achieved.

"GO OR GIVE"

We like the slogan coined by Burgess George Mahoney, of Sharpville, as quoted in the Sharon Herald.
When he made the suggestion "Go or Give" he expressed in the fewest possible words what the war meant to all of us.

Many of our boys are going into the armed services.
Four million of them probably will be inducted this year, according to Friday's dispatches to the Times-Mirror from Washington. Additional millions must be recruited for the Army, Navy, Air Corps and Marines. Others will serve the nation in various capacities in our mills and factories or in various defense organizations now taking form.

And all of us must give in one way or another, probably much more than we now suspect.

We must give by paying much higher taxes. We must buy more defense stamps and bonds. We must give to the Red Cross. And we must give up many things to which we may have become accustomed in our free and easy way of life in past years.

We must "Go or Give"—or both. There can be no slackers if we seek speedy victory over our foe.

And those who "can't go" are reminded that the Warren County Chapter of the American Red Cross is still far below the quota assigned it for the special war fund that is being raised by national headquarters.

"Give" now!

Warren girls planning to try to secure secretarial work in the nation's capital will be interested to learn that the first lesson for new government stenographers is that they must keep secrets.

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER
NEW YORK—The war is going to make a respectable word of "escape." For the past decade the sterner critics of life and letters haven't found a harsher word to call anybody than "escapist."
Those who preferred the lighter forms of recreation, either in the library or the theatre, were accused of ignoring the world's downhill spin. They shirked a duty by remaining light-hearted.
Now, suddenly, because of the war glooms, the gay trifles of the stage, screen and bookshelves have assumed a useful place in the world. The mind needs release from the news of the day, and such plays as "Let's Face It," "Blithe Spirit" and "Best Foot Forward" are jocular antidotes for care. So are the thriller movies, like "Suspicion" and "The Maltese Falcon," and novels like "Saratoga Trunk" and "Wild Is The River," far removed from the present.

DEFENDERS of "escape" works always charged discrimination. They argued that the taunt of "running from life" was never flung at persons who pampered other appetites. Let a man buy himself a good dinner, they pointed out, and nobody accused him of numbing his mind with rich food. But let him try to digest that dinner over a light book, or at a frivolous play, and the arrows of scorn pelted his poor hide.

Nor would the women stand for classification as escapists because of their fondness for dress. Their defense was that fashion gave employment to seamstresses, cutters and all the other skills marshalled in keeping them well dressed. It was an excuse, incidental, declined to the devotees of escape literature.

RESTORING "escape's" good

A name should be a blessing to the cinema. There, more than anywhere else, is a task of keeping abreast of trends. The hardpunching war films, which dared not identify the villainous armies, were a constant headache to the film-makers. With our nation nominally neutral, it was a risk to be specific, and the films that really started out to say something were vilified by necessary compromises. Now the lid is off. They can romp any play and take all the reins off nonsense.

A survey of the entertainment offerings of 1917, when American first experimented with morale building, shows a similar renascence of "escape stories." The first several plays that opened after April of that year, if they showed just a trace of serious thought, perished instantly. But after a few daring producers invested heavily in musical shows the public declared itself for laughs.

A WASHINGTON DAYBOOK

By JACK STINNETT

WASHINGTON—There has been a great deal of talk about the death of partisan politics. I will have to plead guilty to having, on occasion, put in my two cents worth on that score—but not any longer.

I have been a visiting-up on the Hill and I'm here to report that the old political hatchet is only buried on one subject—the winning of the war. Since December 7, I haven't been able to find a congressman (or woman) who doesn't want to win the war.
But after that, agreement ends and the basis of partisan politics is disagreement.

IN THE first place, this is election year and the seats of 34
Senators and all of the members of the House, of course, are at stake. That means campaigns—and campaigns mean "issues."

Agriculture Secretary Declares War Placing New Demands For Food

fighting forces and peoples all over the world, x x x

"In view of this prospect, I am concerned," Wickard said, "that the American people are more concerned about prices than the possibility that, in the future, demands might outstrip supplies."

Agriculture, he said, faces a production job comparable in size to that of the munitions makers. New food production goals to be announced soon will surpass anything ever attempted in this country, he said.

"Price," the secretary said, "is a vital factor in all production. Price control, if rightly used, can help get abundant production. If unwisely used, it might hinder production, x x x"

"After all," he said, "the best protection the consumer has against skyrocketing prices and rationing is abundant supplies and not price ceilings. Not all the authority in Germany and Italy has been able to prevent bootlegging of rationed products. Under such circumstances, the rich eat and the poor go hungry."

CHURCH WORKER HELD ON SWINDLING COUNT

Newark, N. J., Jan. 12.—(P)—The people of the parish of St. Roseville Methodist church were astounded today at the news that one of their most ardent church workers had been arrested as a confidence woman with a record of a half-century of swindling and prison life.

The charge against Mrs. Amelia Carr, gentle-faced, bearded wife of the chairman of the church trustees, was defrauding another church woman of $4,700. Essex County Prosecutor William A. Wachenfeld said a check of fingerprints by the FBI unveiled a career of crime starting in 1891 during which Mrs. Carr, now 65, had swindled numerous victims of more than $1,000,000.

Recharging your PHYSICAL BATTERIES

WHEN ONE IS ASLEEP, the higher nerve centers are protected from the impressions constantly flowing in through the sense organs. Waste matters are removed and nature "recharges your batteries" while you are sleeping.

Nervous action as well as physical action involves expenditure of energy. Sensation, emotion, volition and all the other processes of the brain use up energy. Even a brief "nap" gives a benefit out of all proportion to its duration. Many scientists believe this is because you get a sample of the most restful part of sleep, which is believed to be the first two hours.

The average person requires from seven to eight hours restful sleep each night to "keep the energy batteries charged." The neighbor who keeps the radio going full blast until all hours, the man who keeps barking and howling dogs, is doing more than maintaining a nuisance—the restful sleep of many people may be affected—and consequently their health.

If you find difficulty in sleeping, consult your doctor! It is not safe or wise to resort to sleeping powders, potions or pills unless you have the assurance of your physician.

"Some of these companies are making fortunes out of defense contracts," the Texas senator told reporters. "We can get some of the money they have and we ought to overhaul the excess profits tax thoroughly."

This might involve, Connolly said, a change in the method computing such taxes. Corporations now have the alternative of figuring their excess profits levies on the basis of their invested capital or on the standard of past profits.

The invested capital in the favored by the treasury in the treasury in the past, has been opposed by Chairman George (D.-Ga.), of the finance committee, who contended that many corporations with large capital stock issues thus avoided paying a fair share of taxes on admittedly large profits.

MILLION CORDS OF FIREWOOD IS STATE'S RECORD

Harrisburg, Jan. 12.—The people of Pennsylvania use approximately one million cords of firewood annually, according to Charles E. Baer, Deputy Secretary of the Department of Forests and Waters.

The cutting of this amount of firewood on the thirteen million acres of forest land in the state cannot be considered a drain on the forests and farm woodlots, as invariably the harvesting is done as an improvement cutting. Usually only the dead, diseased and inferior kinds of trees are removed, with consequent improvement in the production and quality of the remaining stand.

On the average, it requires twice the weight and four times the bulk of hardwoods to obtain the same heat value as compared with a ton of coal.

Most of the native Pennsylvania trees make good firewood. The best in the order named for heating qualities, are hickory, oak, beech, birch, locust, hard maple, elm, ash, cherry and chestnut.

Bradford Tops Team Scoring And Smith Leads Players in First Week of League Play

Bradford High school's powerful basketball Owls and Warren High's Martin Smith, stellar forward, shared scoring honors as the first week of the Northern League campaign came to a close.

According to statistics as compiled by the Times-Mirror sports department, the defending champions of the league have scored 104 points in two contests for an average of 52 per game, while Smith holds the individual lead with 29 points in two encounters for an average of 14.5.

Bradford's Fred Fling trails the local player by a lone point in the individual scoring race, and Spenk of Kane, with 27, and DeStephano of Johnsonburg, with 26, hold claims to third and fourth spots respectively.

The team race is not so close, with Joe Massa's Sheffield Wolverines in second place, a considerable distance away from the Owls, having collected 74 points in the first two outings. Warren and Johnsonburg share third with 71 team points apiece.

Bradford has shot the most field goals in their two clashes, in fact, more than Emporium, weaker sister of the Owls, has been able to gather in its total points. The Tubers, with only a dozen field goals, are in the cellar all the way around, having only laid claim to 39 points thus far.

Johnsonburg has the honor of caging the most fouls with 21, with 16 points apiece.

BEST AND ONLY SURE DEFENSE TO USE AGAINST MIGHTY BRADFORD OWLS THIS YEAR IS SIMPLY TO PLUG UP BASKETS

If you take a look at a story on tonight's sport page which gives the present scoring of the individuals and teams in the Northern League, you will find that the Bradford Owls are out in front by a goodly margin, and would seem 20 points stronger than any other outfit in the league. This fact might well be true, for the Owls this year are at the scoring a little bit, it must be remembered that Bradford has accumulated its total of 104 points against the generally considered weaker teams in the circuit this year. They spilled the Redway by a 45-30 count, when the Elks weren't rated a chance in the first place, even though the game was played on their court to start the league campaign, then last Friday night shattered Emporium's Tubers on the spacious Bradford gym, 59-17. All this was done, however, while the Owls were playing without Ed Moffatt, and so you've got to admit they've got immense scoring power. But Warren has met Sheffield, Johnsonburg, both rated well above Emporium and Ridgway, fielding their 71 points to date. Tomorrow evening the Dragons will have a chance to boost their scoring when Emporium comes here, but Friday night will battle Bradford and probably won't get much on the Owl court.

Penn State has released press information on its winter sports program and the Nittany Lions seem to be in for a busy campaign on many fronts before they see another spring. Boxing, wrestling, basketball, swimming, gymnastics and fencing are among the sports which will find State athletes participating, and local fans will probably be most interested in the fortunes of the gymnastics squad, which boasts among its personnel two ex-Warren High tumbler, Harold Zimmerman and Edwin Anderson. The success of the Nittany Lions against six hard opponents and in the Intercollegiate to be staged at Philadelphia, March 14, will depend largely upon "Zimmie's" art of tumbling. The two-time state scholastic tumbler in his sophomore year with the Lions, leads the way among the matmen and has a good chance of winning the Eastern gymnastics tumbling title. Five lettermen are returning to the squad, of which Louis Bordo, Philadelphia athlete, is most outstanding. A tumbler, and also capable as a pointsetter on the parallel and horizontal bars, Bordo is looked to as the most valuable veteran on the squad; Zimmerman, the most promising newcomer.

Bank Shots . . . Remembering Pearl Harbor, Joe Louis and Fuddy Baer fought a benefit the other night for the Navy Relief Fund. . . Seems to this corner, that, remembering Madison Square Garden, the Navy and Joe Louis now had ought to fight a benefit for Buddy Baer. . . He took it on the chin, too. . . Well, so far so perfect we don't know whether we should risk our slate again, but once a forerunner, always one, and so here we go with our choice for tonight's night's Northern League battles. . . Hit every one of them right last week. . . But now, Warren over Emporium by a riddling score, Johnsonburg to whip St. Marys with ease. . . Sheffield will run away with their tussle against Ridgway. . . Bradford to wreck the scoreboard beating the Kane Wolves. . . (That last one will probably be about right, since Kane's Wolves are more harmless than a stuffed mouse, which is only good for a brief scare). . . Looks like we can erase our 1942 prediction that Hogan would cap the National Open. . . There isn't going to be any. . . May cut his receipts a bit too, but per ratio we still say he'll repeat his '41 feat as leading money winner. . . W. E. S. band plays a concert tonight, which you might care to hear. . . Which reminds us that of late the music makers haven't been out to a ball game.

COOPER LEADS FIELD IN LOS ANGELES OPEN

Los Angeles, Jan. 12.—(P)—It was Harry Cooper against the field today in the final round of the $10,000 Los Angeles Open and the last crack at the biggest purse on California's winter tournament trail.

The 39-year-old veteran went into the finale with a two stroke lead over his brother, Fred Cooper, who had rounds of 63-71-70-210 for the club's tree-lined, well trapped course. He bolstered his position yesterday after starting out on even terms with tournament favorite, Benny Hogan, of Hershey, America's top money winning pro and low scorer in 1941.

Hogan shot a creditable 72 to go with his previous 70-70 for a 54 hole score of 212.

Lurking behind, and a threat to both Cooper and Hogan, were two men just three blows out of first place. They were Slammin' Sam Sneed, who shared the pre-tournament honor spot with Hogan, and long hitting Jimmy Thompson, of Del Monte, who won the tournament five years ago.

Sneed, of Hot Springs, Va., looked like the biggest threat. He hadn't had a hot round, but coasted into a 213 trail behind fields of 70-71-72. And still very much in contention was Horton Smith, the first round leader, with a 72 yesterday for 214.

Few industrial processes have experienced a more rapid growth than rayon fiber manufacturing, the Department of Commerce reports.

Dragons Expected to Annex 3rd League Victory Against Guests Without any Trouble

If you would like to see the Dragons play one ball game this season where they had ought to go a lot of scoring, then this writer suggests you drop over to Bradford gym tomorrow night when Emporium pays a visit and Warren gets a breather before moving on to plenty of trouble at Bradford Friday evening.

The hapless Tubers, under the guidance of Paul Civitts, seem completely out of their class this winter, even worse off than were they last season when they managed to win six while losing eight. Badly beaten by both Johnsonburg and Bradford, the Jays handing them a 39-22 trouncing on their own court and the Owls performing their feat while Emporium was doing the visiting, there's little hope that the Tubers will be able to "rise and shine" in their meeting here tomorrow night against Warren.

Like a strip-teaser, the Tubers are simply down to bare facts; the material is insufficient and not outstanding, and the competition is away over their heads.

So when Emporium starts a lineup of probably Caskey and Gustafson at forwards, Parks at center, and Rodick and Griffin at the guards against the Dragons, it will be more or less simply a formality to comply with the rules.

Tomorrow evening's fray will give Coach Kolpien one last opportunity to do a little added experimenting with his boys before meeting the Bradford charges of Coach Harold Bruce Friday night, and though the starting lineup will probably include Smith, Buertke, Wright, Urbanaki, and either Hammerbeck or Lunquist, none of these cagers are expected to play very much of the ball game.

Elsewhere around the circuit, the Owls will hold a dress rehearsal at Kane against the mediocre Wolves, Sheffield invades Ridgway to lay into the Elks, and Johnsonburg is preparing to spend the evening with the Flying Dutchmen of St. Marys.

Tomorrow night's contest will be preceded by a preliminary which it is hoped will get under way at 7:30 o'clock after which the main game will follow.

By winning from Du-Rex Rifle Club at Duke Center Saturday night, the Irvine Gun Club balanced their ledger in the N.Y.-Penn Rifle League, and now show one win and one defeat.

Team totals were 936 to 920 with no exceptional scores being fired, possibly because the weather was more conducive to chattering teeth than properly squeezed triggers.

The Pittsburgh Scots, who had tasted victory in two solid years, finally halted their losing streak at 27 games Saturday night by defeating Case of Cleveland, 42-27.

However, Wisconsin, whose coach labelled his present aggregation as his 1941 National Collegiate Champions, is resting at the bottom of the Big Ten circuit with three straight losses and for the third straight time the Uclans have a reprieve by Southern California at Los Angeles.

Dartmouth, who has held the Eastern League title almost since its present athletes were in the kindergarten, was spilled in its 1942 opener by Harvard and highly regarded George Washington bowed to Duke, the Southern League's defending champion, although Matt Zunic hammered in five baskets.

DO TIME FOR LOVE

Chapter Nine
The Boss Takes Over

"I'M ALL RIGHT," said Lavinia. "Only it has been a rather hard winter at the store."

"When was your vacation time?" "In about two weeks," Lavinia replied.

"Again Miss Dorcas eyed her. 'Will you do something for me?' she said."

"Why, yes of course, Aunt Dorcas. What is it?" "Will you let me plan your vacation?"

"But, Aunt Dorcas, I always have it planned. I always go up to a quiet place in Connecticut—where I can relax, and read, and get plenty of good fresh vegetables."

"Good lord!" "What a dreadful vacation for a girl who works hard in a store. What you need is fun—gaiety—bright company. You need a vacation that makes you completely forget business—and yourself!"

"One always returns from a vacation like that more tired than before."

"But it's a healthy sort of tiredness," said Miss Dorcas. "At least those tired people have some pleasant memories to look back on. Listen, Lavinia, have you created any happy memories to think about when you're old?"

"What a funny question!" said Lavinia. "I can always remember the days at the store and—"

"Oh, darn the store!" said Miss Dorcas. She caught Lavinia's arm, drew her to a standstill. "You're not going up to a quiet place in Connecticut, are you?"

"Going to a summer resort, and acting like a young woman your age should act."

"But, Aunt Dorcas, I—"

"Don't say you can't afford it! Miss Dorcas rushed on. 'I'll make up the difference between what your vacation usually costs you and a vacation where I want you to go.'"

Lavinia tried to laugh, but it wasn't a very successful attempt. "What on earth do I want with a vacation in a gay resort?" she said.

"The things they do in such places don't interest me."

"You're going just the same," said Miss Dorcas stubbornly. "You owe me something, my dear—and if it will please me to have you in a gay resort for a couple of weeks, you shouldn't refuse."

"But, Aunt Dorcas—"

"And to stop saying 'But, Aunt Dorcas'—Miss Dorcas let go of Lavinia's arm, and they walked on. 'I did a lot of thinking today while you and Peter were being married,' she said. 'And I found myself wondering if a ceremony like that—the exchange of vows between a man and a woman—lasting far better than a career, either in a store or in fat-off places, where I've been—'

"You mean you regretted not having gone through a wedding ceremony yourself?" said Lavinia.

"Yes," said Miss Dorcas. "Oh, anyway, I mean I'm sorry—everlasting sorry—that I never had a real romance. That's why I want you to have one."

"It sounds utterly foolish," said Lavinia. "But—but—if it will make you happy, I'll think it over."

"Good!" said Miss Dorcas. "Now let's go somewhere and see if you can find some summer resort literature."

"I don't think there are any travel bureaus open on Sunday," said Lavinia.

"Maybe not, but we can have a look just the same," said Miss Dorcas.

And off she went very briskly. Lavinia had to make an effort to keep up with her.

The Plunketts

"YOU'RE going to Harbor Head," Miss Dorcas announced a week later, when Lavinia came in from work.

"Yes," said Lavinia rather listlessly, as she tossed aside her hat and purse. "Where's that?"

"Up in Maine," said Miss Dorcas. "And I'm going up with you."

"Oh, that'll be wonderful!" Lavinia exclaimed, brightening at once.

"But not to stay," Miss Dorcas added. "I've got an invitation from a musty sort of person I met in a jungle—and he wants me to come up to Portland to spend awhile with him and his equally musty wife."

She smiled, and went on. "I'll leave you at Harbor Head, and go on to my own place at the Peninsular Plunkett has a lot of notes I can use. If I decide to write my memoirs Besides, he's an authority on whales."

"Then you are still interested in things like that?" said Lavinia. "I'm glad I was afraid you were through with your past life entirely."

"Don't think I'm going to leave the civilized world again," Miss Dorcas said. "I'm not but I have a sort of half-hearted plan to do some writing, built around my experiences. Professor Plunkett can be of help—and Miss Plunkett is a very good cook."

"Yes," said Lavinia. "You plan to park me like a red-haired step-child in a gay summer resort, and then sneak off to have a good time with a lot of whales, and professors and things. I think that's an awful trick to play on your only niece."

"If you think I'm going to have what you call a 'good time,' said Aunt Dorcas, 'you're badly mistaken. I'd much rather stay with you at Harbor Head, but a maiden aunt is bad for a girl at a summer resort—it scares off the men.'"

"What of it?" said Lavinia. "I'd much rather have you than the men."

"You'll probably have me for a long time, my dear—so give the young men a chance."

And so it was settled.

Lavinia cancelled her reservations at the quiet Connecticut place, and tried to enter into her aunt's plans with some show of enthusiasm. But this was difficult.

Life certainly played cruel tricks on people. For years she had tried to make across the sort of young woman she was confident her aunt wanted her to be, and now she was beginning to feel that she had failed, that she had made a grave mistake. Time and time again she sensed that Zoe was more the type of girl her aunt admired than she.

She was suffering, this hurt on the evening she and her aunt dined with Zoe and Peter in their new apartment. For there was no doubting the look of genuine admiration in her aunt's eyes as she watched Zoe bustling back and forth from the kitchen, etc. to the table which was set up in the small living room—the table which Peter, himself, had helped arrange.

"We cut our honeymoon short," Zoe was saying, "so we could get settled before Pete had to go back to work."

"Yes," grinned Peter, "a week of honeymooning, and a week of apartment hunting. By the way, how do you folks like our little nest?"

"I think it's perfect!" said Aunt Dorcas.

"It seems very comfortable, and—and cozy," said Lavinia.

Zoe gave her a quick look. "You really mean 'cramped' when you say 'cozy,' don't you, darling?" she said.

"Of course not!" Lavinia lied.

Geranium

PRESENTLY the meal was ready, and they all sat down. They all ate heartily, even Lavinia; although she had been quite certain that the food would be like ash in the mouth.

"Where on earth did you learn to cook so well?" Miss Dorcas wanted to know.

"In the orphan asylum," said Zoe. "Or I began there. I've always had culinary leanings, that's the reason I urged Lavinia to share an apartment. I knew I could plunge into cooking the moment I got home from work."

Miss Dorcas smiled at her niece. "Did you help?" she asked.

"Very little, I'm afraid," said Lavinia.

"She's a good little dish-washer," said Zoe hurriedly. "And she helped in other ways—reading aloud to me while I cooked. So's to improve my mind, you know."

"Splendid!" Miss Dorcas then spoke to Lavinia. "Why don't you do that, my dear?"

"Why should I?" said Lavinia, feeling that she was being put on the defensive. "The way I plan to live, I can afford to pay someone to do my cooking."

They changed the subject after that, and talked of less personal matters.

"How about some bridge?" Peter suggested, when the meal was over.

"I'm afraid we haven't time," Miss Dorcas replied. "You see, Lavinia and I are up to our necks in packing."

"How wonderful that you're going up to Maine!" said Zoe. "I'm sure it will be a most interesting and wonderful trip."

"Of course I'll write," said Lavinia. "You've got the address—so don't expect me to do all the writing, either."

Miss Dorcas turned to have a last look at the room.

"I love everything about your new home," she said. "Everything from the lovely rug on the living room floor to—that pretty geranium on the kitchen window sill."

"Thanks," said Zoe. She looked at Lavinia and smiled. "I really some writing, built around my experiences. Professor Plunkett can be of help—and Miss Plunkett is a very good cook."

"Yes," said Lavinia. "You plan to park me like a red-haired step-

EXPERT BIDDING SCORES BOARD TOP FOR CHAMPIONS

BY WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority

I have often said that Mrs. Wilkinson Wagar, of Atlanta, Ga., is the outstanding woman player of the South. Her victory in the national open team-of-four championship at Richmond confirms this opinion.

She is a bold and tricky type of player. In today's hand she was dummy, but she had already started by winning the hand in the bidding. Other pairs reached three no trump and went down by losing four clubs and a diamond.

Corregidor Island And Front Defenses Under New Attack

(From Page One)
Samoa some 2,200 miles southwest of Hawaii. A snafu enemy warship plucked 14 shells of light caliber in the direction of the naval station there. No damage and only three slight casualties resulted.

One Drake on the enemy's land, sea and air forces was the continued stubborn resistance of the durable defenders of the Philippines.

General Douglas MacArthur, the War Department disclosed, hurled back a fresh attack yesterday by "heavily reinforced Japanese troops." The enemy struck with "unprecedented force" at MacArthur's right flank northwest of Manila, but were repulsed with heavy losses by American and Filipino troops holding previously prepared positions. The defenders' casualties were light.

Japanese bombers returned simultaneously to their attacks on the bristling fortifications guarding the mouth of Manila bay. The bombardment, the first in several days, was not heavy and did no serious damage.

The raid of the U. S. bombers on Davao disclosed the same heavy concentration of enemy naval strength there as was observed when the army fliers blasted the enemy there on Jan. 5. During the first raid, one battleship, five cruisers, six destroyers, 12 submarines and 12 transports were seen. Yesterday the bombers counted one battleship, six cruisers, two destroyers, eight transports and ten smaller vessels.

The Japanese reported from Tokyo a claim that their troops had occupied Saturday the U. S. naval base city of Olongapo, in the Philippines 60 miles west of Manila. The U. S. Navy had no comment.

EXPLOSION RESULTS IN DEATH AT MONACA
Monaca, Pa., Jan. 12—(P)—Frank Schumuk, 61, burned by a gas furnace explosion which set fire to a two-story business building last night, died today in a Rochester hospital.

Schumuk, who was tending the furnace at the time of the blast, was carried to safety by firemen after two other men, Robert Cook and John Hermie, were overcome by fumes in an unsuccessful rescue attempt. Schumuk was the father of Henry Schumuk, who operated a shoe store in the building on Penna. avenue. Firemen estimated the damage at $15,000.

JEHOVAH'S WITNESS MINISTER SENTENCED
Portland, Me., Jan. 12—(P)—Arthur F. Cox, 50, slim, graying Jehovah's Witness minister, was sentenced to a life term at hard labor in state prison today for the murder of a deputy sheriff who refused to listen to a phonograph recording of Cox's religious teachings.

With no display of emotion, Cox listened to Superior Judge Edward T. Murray impose the sentence, mandatory in Maine upon conviction of murder.

Rome, Jan. 12—(Official broadcast recorded by P)—The Italian high command announced today that Axis planes had heavily attacked an advanced British airbase at Agadebia, Libya, but declared that land operations on the North African air front were limited yesterday to patrol skirmishes.

Washington, Jan. 12—(P)—The senate confirmed today President Roosevelt's nomination of Laurence A. Steinhardt, of New York, former ambassador to Russia, to be ambassador to Turkey.

Dutch Fighters Hit Invasion Footholds With Aid Of Allies

largest city of British Malaya, was indicated meanwhile by the British when they acknowledged another retreat on the road to Singapore—withdrawal to new positions before Seremban, 35 miles southeast of Kuala Lumpur. The Japanese followed the imperial forces with heavy assaults.

Regardless of the sweep of the Japanese through almost two thirds of Malaya in little more than a month of war, Singapore will be no easy nut to crack. The most the Japanese can hope for is a costly victory after terrible siege.

The Japanese supplemented their drive toward Singapore from the northwest with fierce air attacks. The Japanese said that a packed troop train was toppled from the tracks near Tampin by a bomb hit. Tampin is about 20 miles below Seremban.

The Japanese supplemented their claims of farflung land successes with an announcement that army planes sang a 5,000-ton merchant ship and damaged two submarines on Saturday in Malacca Strait between Malaya and the Dutch island of Sumatra.

The Japanese were finding a terrific resistance to their assault on the outposts of the Dutch archipelago. A Dutch communiqué said that N. E. I. forces were locked in bitter combat with enemy parachute troops which, with sea-borne forces, yesterday sought to envelop three strategic positions in the Minahasa area, northern arm of the Celebes.

The fourth point of Japanese assault, the island of Tarakan, off the Borneo coast, was likewise fiercely defended. The Dutch did not acknowledge the loss of either Mindao, with its 12,000 population, in the Celebes, or Tarakan.

Japan only today declared herself at war with the N. E. I., although the Dutch had been formally at war with Japan since it started hostilities in the Pacific. The Japanese said "that a state of war has come to exist" from Jan. 11, although air raids had been made on the N. E. I. frequently before that date.

The Japanese broadcast from Tokyo a claim that their troops had occupied Saturday the U. S. naval base city of Olongapo, in the Philippines 60 miles west of Manila. The U. S. Navy had no comment.

HIKING CLUB

Eight hardy hikers, including one newcomer, braved the wintry afternoon and joined the Allegheny Hiking Club jaunt yesterday. The group walked from General Joseph Warren Park over to the South Side and up the cemetery hill road, bearing left shortly beyond the Lindsey farm and going up over the hill into the Ott Run valley by woods paths. Crossing the run they circled up on the ridge between Ott Run and Morrison Run and turned left, coming down the east side of the run to the road leading down to the Sherwood Refinery plant and thence home by the river road. The trip was about five and one-half miles in length, and provided an exhilarating three hours with frequent stops to enjoy the scenery of the hills and the Ott Run valley.

payer need only ascertain in which block his gross income (less allowances for dependents) falls to determine his tax. A flat reduction of 10 percent has been made in arriving at the amount of tax shown in the table for deductions such as charitable contributions and taxes paid, so that the taxpayer who uses this method does not list these but gets an automatic deduction of 10 percent.

Under the simplified method the status of a person on the last day of the taxable year is the governing factor in determining the exemption level ($750 for single persons and married persons not living with husband or wife, and $1,300 for married persons living together) as well as the credit for dependents.

A husband and wife living together at the last day of the taxable year may file separate returns on Form 1040A if the gross income of each, is from the prescribed sources and does not exceed $3,000, or they may file a single joint return on that form if their combined income is from the prescribed sources and does not exceed $3,000. If they file a separate return the tax liability of each under the simplified method is the tax imposed upon a single person. If husband and wife file separate returns and only one elects to make a return on Form 1040A, the tax liability of the one so electing is the tax imposed upon a single person. If they file a single joint return, or if only one spouse makes a return because the other spouse has no gross income, the tax liability is the tax imposed upon a married person.

The use of the simplified method is optional with the taxpayer, but once an election has been made for any year, it is irrevocable for that year. If a taxpayer files a return under the simplified method for the taxable year, he may not thereafter file a return under the general provisions of the law for that year. Conversely, if he files a return under the general provisions for any taxable year, he may not thereafter file a return under the simplified method for that year. However, a new election is allowed for each succeeding taxable year.
